A Cream of Tartar Powder,
free from alum or phosphoric acid

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

We intend making this paper worthy of Hendersonville and Henderson county. It takes money to do it. If you want a clean, live newspaper, giving you ALL the news in which you are most interested, send us a dollar for a year's subscription, or hand this paper to some friend, urging him to subscribe. Two subscriptions, $1.50. No matter how many other papers you may take you still need your HOME paper, and your home paper, to amount to much, needs YOU.

Don't forget Board of Trade Meeting, Thursday night. Judge Justice and Solicitor Spainhour will speak. Ladies specially invited.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

C. E. Grimes, Sr., has returned from Georgia.

Mrs. J. W. Smathers spent last week in Asheville.

Dr. Kirk has removed his office to the Bailey building.

Miss Sadie Smathers has recovered from her recent indisposition.

Glover T. Orr now operates the bus service for the Blue Ridge Inn.

Miss Gertrude Smathers, visiting here last week, returned Sunday to Asheville.

The interior of the Justus Pharmacy is being renovated with new paint and paper.

Mrs. H. D. Cole, of New York, and Mr. Powell, of Kentucky, are stopping at T. E. Grimes, Sr.

Smith & Waldrop report sale of lot on Anderson Ave., property of W. D. Barnett, to A. L. Holmes.

Property of John Quince, adjoining Park and Amusement grounds, has been sold to W. A. Smith.

L. W. Walker, of the Crescent Carbonating company, expects to be ready for business very shortly.

Glover T. Orr may now be found at his old place, and has one of the most complete livery in the city.

BIRTHS—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Case, a boy, on Sunday March 4. To Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reed, a girl, on Friday, March 2nd.

The postoffice building is being put into shape by Joe McCrary, who is making the building safer by putting in an iron and pressed brick front. It will improve the corner greatly.

Chain gang has been busy on Main St. cutting down the last of the grand old forest giants which have to be sacrificed to Hendersonville's growth.

Smith & Waldrop and Holmes & Valentine are making extensive improvements on West Broad St., by building stone culverts, widening and grading the street, and making sidewalks.

The infant daughter of J. B. Brookshire, one year old, died last Thursday. Burial in Oak Dale Cemetery, Thos. Shepherd having funeral in charge.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Wm. Anders, 51 years of age, of pneumonia, who departed this life March 3. Interment was in Oak Dale Cemetery, Thos. Shepherd having the funeral in charge.

Chas. H. Hobbs, chairman of Broom Factory committee, reports making good progress. Mr. Hobbs is giving this matter his exclusive attention. Definit results may be expected in the near future.

Jesse D. Beale has returned from his recent visit to New York and may be found at his old stamping ground, the Blue Ridge Inn. Mr. Beale says this has been the most pleasant of all his trips to little old New York.

Thos. P. Ivey an eminent and well known authority upon the subject is to publish a most interesting book upon Forest Problems in the United States. The Hustler has the work in hand, and the contract calls for the completion of the book within three weeks.

Attorney D. L. English, of Brevard is here attending court.

Solicitor Spainhour is a guest of the Blue Ridge Inn during court week.

Miss Crouse, of Lincolnton, N. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Bartlett Shipp.

Rev. Miller, the well-known Bible teacher, preached at the Baptist church last Sunday.

Dr. F. W. Ewbank is filling his regular engagement with patients at Tryon this week.

Rev. W. H. Perry will preach at Fruitland next Sunday morning, and a Union Hill at 2:30.

Mrs. T. A. Allen, Miss Bessie Allen and Miss Edwin Hart have arrived home.

Mrs. Joseph Noterman, and daughter Mrs. J. Noterman Collins, returned from Cincinnati Sunday afternoon.

W. A. Austin, a prominent planter of Unionville, is in the city, stopping at Mrs. Freeman's "Summer Home."

To Mr. and Mrs. Williams, a daughter, last Thursday. Mr. Williams is still delivering mail on Route 3, however.

Dr. L. L. Johnson, Capt. B. T. Morris, J. L. Allen and other citizens of Mills River, were here at the opening of court on Tuesday.

The rumors that the postoffice is to be located in the new building on Main street, are, we understand, without foundation in fact.

Miss Roberts Allen, who has been in the training school at the Mission Hospital for nurses, Asheville, has resigned on account of her health.

We call attention to the advertisement of The Claude Brown Company, who realize the value of The Hustler as an advertising medium.

Staton, Rector, Cunningham & Co., have leased to Mr. Louis Gourdoin, of Umatilla, S. C., the Burton Jackson farm on Edneyville road.

W. C. Lyda is engaged tearing down his old partially burned building on Main St., and is getting ready to put a modern building in its place.

P. B. Cunningham, Frank Smith, Harry Roberts, W. J. Baldwin and J. N. Bessell were here from Fletcher the first of the week on business.

Our advertising is beginning to crowd our news columns. We intend making a change in the mechanical make-up of the paper, which will give us more space for news.

Things are lively around the Blue Ridge Inn this week, with Solicitor Spainhour, the visiting attorneys and their clients and numbers of traveling men.

The revisal of our mailing list will occur during the present month. If you wish to continue reading a real local newspaper, let us hear from you, if indebted to the paper on subscription.

N. Buckner has installed two of the finest Hallwood Cash Registers in the city in the Hendersonville Mercantile Company's store. The registers are automatic marvels and remarkably handsome.

Miss Cleo Lackey, the efficient day operator at the central office at this place, left Monday afternoon for her home in Morganton, where she goes to spend a few days.

Judge Justice and Solicitor Spainhour will deliver addresses before the next meeting of the Board of Trade, Thursday night, March 8th. This announcement will be sufficient to insure a large attendance.

The Trustees of the Graded School, and Holmes & Valentine, are grading a street, leading from Academy to College St., between the school property and the property recently purchased from J. P. Rickman.

Ernest Freeman, formerly the efficient Western Union operator at this place, is visiting in the city from Augusta, where he is now located. Many friends in Hendersonville are giving him the glad hand this week.

Howell Rickman, of Asheville, was here Tuesday in the interest of the Asheville Wholesale Grocery Co. He is a splendid hustler for a young man, and we wish him success. Henderson county boys are all right wherever they "cast their lot."

Dr. Egerton was summoned by telephone to the bedside of his wife, at Conway, S. C. Sunday morning, who was reported in a critical condition. We understand that Mrs. Egerton, however, is now somewhat improved. Dr. Egerton was left in charge of Dr. Egerton's patients during his absence.

Miss Mattie Nell Clarke, a beautiful and attractive young milliner, of Atlanta, spent several hours in the city with friends Monday afternoon enroute for Brevard. She goes there to direct affairs in the millinery establishment of Mrs. E. L. English.

C. H. Hobbs, a very enterprising young gentleman, of this city, came in this office Monday and subscribed for The Hustler. Said he had been thinking of subscribing for some time but kept putting it off, but since the paper has improved so much he could put it off no longer.

The last meeting of the students of Rutherford College authorized L. A. Falls, High Point, to issue a call asking aid in erecting a monument to the late President, Dr. R. L. Abernathy. The register being burned with the college, if you know the names of any old students of Rutherford, send them to L. A. Falls.

Letter to Wm. Hewitt.

Dear Sir: All's well that ends well. Dr. L. W. Dean, Waterville, N. Y., complained that his paint had gone off shockingly—he had been in the habit of painting once in three years—said it looked ten years old; and asked us to make it good.

We referred his request to our agent at Waterville, W. J. Bissell's Son.

Mr. Bissell reported: "Not your paint" and told us whose it was.

That very day Dr. Dean wrote us "I was wrongly informed. Accept my regret."

We don't get many complaints in the course of a year, and don't always get off so easy as this.

Yours truly,
F. W. Devor & Co.

A Tribute to the Memory of Mrs. Mary Pace Young.

Long ago the sound of the Master's voice was heard on Gallie's blue wave saying, "Peace, be still." On Feb. 21st, a home in our little mountain-girt town was visited by that same loving voice and "Peace, be still" was spoken to one, calming the agony of suffering, and safely bore the beautiful, loving and patient soul of Mrs. Mary Pace Young into that home not made with hands.

For months hers has been one long struggle with pain. Few knew of the agony being endured or the lessons of fortitude being learned and taught in that little home. To the writer of these lines a blessing was found by the bedside of this suffering little woman that gold could not buy. There was verified the saying: "It is better to go into the house of mourning, than to go to the house of mirth." I never came from the little home that my heart was not filled and running over with patience, love and gratitude poured into my soul from the very font of heaven, revealed to me through the uncomplaining saint upon that bed of pain. Jesus comforted her; so close was her communion with Him, that all who came in contact with her felt His love overshadowing and sustaining. Her faith was wonderful, as a little child when taking its first tottering steps reaches forth its hands for mother, so this faithful heart reached forth and rested in the promise of God, her Father, never asking, why this suffering? Never complaining, simply loving and trusting. I thank God that He led my footsteps to that bedside and may the lesson learned there make my dying hours as peaceful and calm.

As God comforted a wife and mother in her hours of pain, so will He pour the balm of His Peace into the aching hearts of the devoted husband and gentle ministering daughters.

Some day, At longest, it cannot be long, She will with glad impatience wait, Amid the Glory and the song, For you before the Golden Gate, After earth's parting and earth's pain, Never to part, never again.

A FRIEND.

The Choral Society.

The attendance at the Choral Concert was fair. The house should have been packed to the doors. Here is an organization of which many a city larger than this might well be proud, and which is deserving of the utmost support of our citizens. Another concert may be given in about three months, and the local pride of this city should wake up sufficiently to fill, not merely the lower floor but the entire house from top to bottom. Without attempting a wearisome technical description of the Society's work on last Thursday night, suffice it to say that the concert was fine, and the not-too-large audience evidenced its keen enjoyment by repeated encores. To attempt special mention of individual efforts is hardly necessary, and the concert, as a whole, shows a surprising wealth of musical talent in Hendersonville, which is worthy of every support.

Too much credit cannot be given to Mrs. R. M. Ivins for her painstaking training of the chorus.

Mrs. J. W. Pless, of Marion, came up to lead the chorus, and her solo, Braga's "Angel's Serenade" was one of the gems of the evening.

Mrs. Colton, leader of the violin quartette, clearly showed, even to an untrained ear, her long study and mastery of the most difficult of all musical instruments.

Mr. Hodges was unable to be present, but his place was filled most acceptably by Mr. J. D. Boyd.

These appearing on the stage: Mesdames Ivins, Hewitt, Rockett, J. W. Pless; the Misses Annie, Eva, Helen Smith, Rosa Fey, Lula Waldrop, Verda Waldrop, Gurley, Nan Edwards, Nettie Chenaull, Sunofsky; Messrs. Clark, Stillwell, Starette, T. Valentine, J. D. Waldrop, C. E. Brock, Thomas, Keith, John Grimes, Pless, Boyd.

Following is the program:

Violin quartette, "Airs from the Opera," Mrs. Colton, Misses Annie Smith, Edna Hart, Eva Smith.

Chorus, "Spring Song," Choral Society.

Male quartette, "Carry me Back to Old Virginia," Messrs. Pless, Thomas, Stillwell, J. D. Boyd.

Trio, "Waves of the Sea," Mrs. J. W. Pless, Miss Fey, Mr. C. E. Pless.

Male quartette, "Honey, I Want Y'er Now," Messrs. Pless, Thomas, Stillwell, J. D. Boyd.

Violin quartette, "Air Varie," Mrs. Colton, Misses Annie Smith, Edna Hart, Eva Smith.

Soprano solo, "Angel's Serenade," Mrs. J. W. Pless.

Chorus, "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," Choral Society.

Chorus, "For Thee, O Dear, Dear Country," Choral Society.

Chorus, "The Lost Chord," Choral Society.

The best safeguard against headache, constipation and liver troubles is DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Keep a vial of these famous little pills in the house and take a dose at bedtime when you feel that the stomach and bowels need cleaning. They don't gripe. Sold by F. V. Hunter.

J. A. Bryson, of Camden, S. C., is in the city.

In the spring time you renovate your house. Why not your body? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea drives out impurities, cleanses and enriches the blood and purifies the entire system. 35 cents at Justus' Pharmacy.

City Taxes.

All city taxes are now due and payable, and respectfully request that all persons who are tax payers in the town of Hendersonville come in at once and make settlement, and thereby save trouble and annoyance, and perhaps cost. I cannot wait any longer for your taxes.

T. M. SMITH, Town Tax Collector.

The best way to rid the system of a cold is to evacuate the bowels. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar acts as a pleasant, yet effectual cathartic on the bowels. It clears the head, cuts the phlegm out of the throat, strengthens the bronchial tubes, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough etc. Sold by F. V. Hunter.

What They Think of The Hustler.

J. M. Waldrop—Has greatly improved, in news service and in general appearance.

J. P. Rickman—More and better news service and improved appearance generally. A credit to the city.

Chas. K. Pless—Much better and improving every issue.

Wm. Hewitt, Blue Ridge Inn—Giving us the kind of a paper we want. Local news and lots of it. A good newspaper.

Capt. Toms—A wonderful improvement. Hope you will keep it up.

Dr. T. A. Allen, Jr.—We are proud of The Hustler.

G. M. Glazener—A model newspaper.

K. G. Morris—More news in paper than before. Have heard many favorable remarks about The Hustler.

John Orr—Am pleased with paper, and hear many favorable comments on it.

Prof. Garland—Have heard many people speak favorably of The Hustler.

McD. Ray, County Superintendent—The paper is improving in every way. A brief summary of general news each week would make it still more attractive, but it is very good already.

M. L. Edney—The paper is considerably better now than for some time in the past.

Jesse D. Beale—The Hustler is the best local weekly I remember to have ever seen.

E. W. Ewbank—Have really not been reading the local columns lately, but want to say that The Hustler office is now turning out the best job printing that I have ever seen done by any one here before.

G. O. Johnson—I like the paper fine and think it is improving rapidly.

P. F. Patton—The Hustler certainly is all right.

W. F. Pryor—The Hustler has always been a good paper and I like it first rate.

T. M. Merrell—The Hustler is a good paper and I don't see how I could do without it.

R. E. L. Freeman—You are getting out a lively paper and it is getting better all the time.

Frank Smith—I think your paper has improved very much and I don't feel that I could do without it.

P. B. Cunningham—I have been taking the Hustler for a long time and have always been pleased with it, but now I am more than pleased.

Court Week.

The criminal term of Henderson county Superior court opened Tuesday, Judge M. H. Justice being on the bench. His Honor is counted one of the ablest and the most popular Judge in the State, and one whose decisions are rarely reversed. J. F. Spainhour, Esq., probably the ablest solicitor in the State, is prosecuting the cases in his usual masterly manner. The docket is light, sufficient for one week's term.

There are a number of outside attorneys in the city, and the court house is the busiest place in town. The court room was crowded during the Cagle trial, on Tuesday and Wednesday, and the evidence was closely followed by the interested audience.
